XRF Meeting Wednesday 10th May 2006

On arrival at the British Geological Survey Keyworth site – park your car and head for Reception. You must sign in at reception and receive a name badge (at the end of the meeting you must return to reception, hand in the badge and sign out). You will be escorted to the meeting room where coffee will be served and you will pick up your delegate folder. The meeting starts at 10:30 with a tour of the BGS X-ray facilities and finishes at around 5pm.

Travel directions are on the web at: <http://www.bgs.ac.uk/contacts/sites/keyworth/kwhome.html>

The following maps should help delegates travelling by car.
